The world of payment factories is all but static. Quite the opposite, it shows a constant momentum that makes it difficult to keep up with change and innovation. And its variable-geometry semantics brings more complexity. Time to set the record straight and make sense of it all.

Our Solutions

Payments Centralisation

29/09/2017

Companies of all sizes are increasingly seeking to centralise business support functions such as finance, procurement, IT support and HR. Typically, the primary objectives are to improve efficiency, reduce costs, and enable business units to focus on the company's core business activities. However, as these centralised functions mature, they are moving beyond cost savings to become service companies that contribute demonstrable value to the organisation.
