

Inside Cash - Episode 3: Cyber Security, Collections Management and Instant Payments

published on 24.06.2019

In the first part of this episode of Inside Cash, Jan Dirk van Beusekom talks about why cyber security matters and what you can do about it. This is followed by an interesting insight into collections management by Dennie Servranckx and advice on optimising your collections strategy. At the end, our payments expert Francis De Roeck talks about the latest in instant payments.
